Sylvia Posadas BTW Duncan, are you aware that Ken O'Keefe is an unapologetic supporter of David Duke, claiming erroneously that Duke has reformed? are you going to be a pothole in the road to justice for Palestinians like your mate Yani here who is permitted to drivel his bigotry unassailed except by me?

Duncan Shipley-Smith Not aware of KOK's support for DDuke and I am not a pothole unless potholes finance BDS conferences, as for Yani he is a member here and not a 'mate'.....tirade deleted..

Sylvia Posadas Duncan, I have access to Yani's mindmaps of his facebook ops. You are 'assigned' to this group. Can you tell me what Yani means by this?

Sylvia Posadas I have screenshots of Ken O'Keefe promoting Duke. Would you like them?

Duncan Shipley-Smith Actually this is quite interesting from the perspective of Max Igan's youtube channel that may be worth examining before this conversation proceeds.

Yani, can you please explain yourself?

Yani Haigh ...sometime around the age of ten I acquired a simple principle from my mother on a now forgotten occasion when I must have reported, or perhaps even repeated, some negative observations of an uncle's behaviour as 'typically Jewish'. She told me very firmly: "

I have tried to observe it ever since, although the strain of doing so is sometimes intolerable, in the light of the behaviour of the government of Israel. My mother's principle was sufficient for me to abstain, with regret, from declaring myself konfessionslos (without religion) as one was entitled to do in Austria at the age of thirteen. It has landed me with the lifetime burden of an unpronounceable surname which seems spontaneously to call for the convenient slide into Hobson or Osborn. It has been enough to define my Judaism ever since, and left me free to live as what my friend Isaac Deutscher called a 'non-Jewish Jew', but not what the miscellaneous regiment of religious or nationalist publicists call a 'self-hating Jew'. I have no emotional obligation to the practices of an ancestral religion and even less to the small, militarist, culturally disappointing and politically aggressive nation-state which asks for my solidarity on racial grounds. I do not even have to fit in with the most fashionable posture of the turn of the new century, that of 'the victim', the Jew who, on the strength of the Shoah (and in the era of unique and unprecedented Jewish world achievement, success and public acceptance), asserts unique claims on the world's conscience as a victim of persecution. -Eric Hobsbawm: Interesting Times: A Twentieth Century Life (Pantheon, 2002, p.24)

Yani Haigh You have access to a mindmap that is missing 200 groups and pages that was a concept for establishing a common set of values because on most groups they same people cross paths. The idea being to unite the groups under the most simple of common objectives 'no one is free until everyone is free'. The way the groups were described was merely my interpretation of how I use them.

From that Benjamin Doherty, here after called, the idiot, created a conspiracy theory without ever taking any time to speak to me.

These are the objectives

The case for review

Many using similar values for moderation now, no KKK etc
Provide guidelines on best practice

Objectives

Improve the ability of people to access information
Qualify a page or group as meeting a standard
Allow sensible reviews of website, pages or groups

Common agreement

Must actively apply principle of 'no one is free until everyone is free'.
Commitment to all possible efforts to eliminate Othering.
The assigned group of 'owners' are part of a joint forum.

<http://www.peacearchitects.org/net-management>

It was to assist us in managing Othering. So that if a trouble-maker was detected in one group the person couldn't jump group to group.

With that was to be a survey in several parts. It all got put on hold because the intended software had to many errors.

The outcome would NOT have been a mindmap of 500 groups and pages as that only invites the JIDF to go nuts. It would have been a selector where you put in a set of preferences and got group suggestions.

As with The Best Plans Project, who do you think did the work behind that? Who paid the web fees on a private server for 8 months? Who bought the software? Who implemented it and did the logos? Who took the incoming text in English, Hebrew and Arabic for each plan and put them in place, all of which had to be formatted? Who implemented the co-comment system and worked with the developer for a month getting the bugs out? Who ran the fund raising drive after he was sick of paying fees for 8 months? Who set up the Facebook pages? Who endured a weekly Skype session with the Zionist elite?

Indeed, who wrote the 1.2M grant application for Free Muslims.

Posadas knows squat as does the idiot that wrote that article and plagiarized work he has no rights to use. All you know is that I think people that are Jews that slag off at Greta suck. And from that extrapolate I'm a 'racist bigot'. A fucking apology is what is in order here.

company and the web fees came from donations primarily from Australia and Scandinavia. The only thing the Jewish influence did was fuck it up by taking the project in Ariel because Ariel was free. Yea another example of Jews who suck.

Sylvia Posadas I see, Yani. The fact that peacearchitects.org has Best Plans as one of its projects is completely incidental. That you are in touch with the person who runs its server is incidental.

BTW why did you choose bcisiveonline.com for your Facebook tracking project? and why is the server still down?

Yani Haigh That lot couldn't even keep Gershon Baskin on side and he managed to Gilad released. It did have some wins...

Tsvi now calls Palestinians Palestinians and not Arabs
They don't write 'Israel-Palestine' then the 'Palestine-Israel Conflict'
Nor do they write Israel/Palestine (Israel over Palestine)
Nor do they dare abuse women anymore

You should talk to Rachel Lever and Esther Riley. They will tell you what sucking is all about.

Yani Haigh I'm sure you will screen grab everything, nothing said here is news to anyone. There are no Jews from TBP on my friends list because they all joined a secret group that is riddled with members of the EDL and Wilders Inc. From that group the deformation campaign against all of us is run. Cliff Pinto and co are behind that. That's who you are supporting by fucking me and Greta over.

bcisiveonline.com == number of users it allow for free

Posadas you are such a nobody compared to the people I deal with. You have no idea at all of who I'm working with. You don't even have the guts to stand up for Greta. She has put her life on the line to make change happen. So has Saeed for that matter and Rich.

You would rather participate in deformation and disinformation. The end of the world isn't an unintended post on Greta's Twitter.

Yani Haigh A single democratic secular state in the whole territory between river and sea will resemble one or another of the world's democracies. It is a common, tried and tested vehicle to fulfill and hold together both individual rights and communal and collective rights of its component populations. All citizens are equal under the law and all have equal access to framing that law and using it, regardless of gender, ethnic origins or religious faith. Integration rather than separation emphasizes what people have in common, not what separates them. Familiarity reduces fear and prejudice. The plan is a statement of overall principles which are generally agreed by all its supporters worldwide. It will be for representatives of the two populations to draw up together a detailed constitution and set out agreed rights, freedoms and structures.

<http://www.thebestplans.org/plans/25a>

Rachel Lever, I think from memory Rachel was called an 'antisemitic Jew hater' for that plan.

Kim Marie Firstly, enough with this "star" bullshit. The Palestine solidarity movement belongs to all of those people involved in it and supportive of the Palestinian struggle. It does not belong to "stars" simply because they have become the most prominent in the movement, due to what ever reason. Sylvia has as much right to express her opinion as any other person and it is no less legitimate than anyone else's opinion.

Secondly, I don't give flyng fig whether you are well known name or someone whose name is not known, anti-semitism and racism is abhorrent and has not place in ANY movement for social justice and human rights.

Thirdly, sexism and calling someone a 'bitch' or any other misogynistic terms has absolutely no place in ANY movement for social justice and human rights.

Fourthly, Sylvia is right - Ken O'Keefe has repeatedly defended the anti-semitic politics of David Duke. For me that immediately discredits him (O'Keefe) as a genuine voice in support of the Palestinian people.

If people want to defend or engage in anti-semitism, then they are not a friend of the Palestinian people or cause, a fact noted by Palestinian activists repeatedly. We need to recognise this and we need to strongly oppose all forms of racism, sexism and bigotry in this movement, including anti-semitism and Islamophobia.
